MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME X—NEW SERIES. MILWAUKEE TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 31, 1854. WHOLE NUMBER 2797.

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

IS PAID EVERY MORNING, (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED,) BY

RUFUS KING & CO.,

AT THE OFFICE,

Nos. 205 & 207 EAST WATER STREET,

CORNER OF WISCONSIN STREET,

IN THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH STORIES OF LEMINGTON'S NEW BRICK BLOCK.

TERMS:

THE DAILY SENTINEL will be left at the door of City Subscribers at SIX DOLLARS a year, payable Quarterly in 50 Cents a Month; or, 12½ Cents a Week, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL—THREE DOLLARS a year, IN VARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID, EXPIRES.

WEEKLY PAPER—ONE DOLLARS a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED, WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID EXPIRES.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

IN ORDER that there may be no misunderstanding in relation to Advertising, we here state the rates determined upon in our daily papers, from Jan. 1st, 1851:

1 square,	per year,	$12 00	1 square,	2 weeks,	$2 75
"	9 months,	10 50	"	1 "	1 50
"	6 "	8 00	"	5 times,	1 38
"	3 "	5 00	"	4 "	1 25
"	2 "	3 50	"	3 days,	1 00
"	1 "	2 00	"	2 "	0 75
"	6 weeks,	4 00	"	1 "	0 50
"	1 month,	1 50
"	2 weeks,	0 50

Twelve lines Nonpareil (or less) make a square. Leaded Advertisements, "after reading matter," 50 per cent. advance on the above rates.

One square, with a change once a week, $25; 2 squares, $40; 1 square, with a change every day, $50; 2 squares, $100; 3 squares, with four changes a year, $75; (DAILY PAPER NOT COUNTED.) No paper will be discontinued (unless at the discretion of the proprietors,) until all arrearages are paid.

Persons wishing to discontinue their yearly or casual advertising, must give notice at the Counting Room. All yearly advertisers discontinuing their advertising before the year is out, will be charged at the above rates.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business, and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, or on other business, must be paid for at the usual rates.

Communications, the effect of which is to promote private interests, to be paid for at the rate of 50 Cents per square for each insertion.

In all cases where advertisements are sent in, marked "DAILY AND WEEKLY," they will be charged 50 Cents per square for the first insertion, and 25 Cents for each subsequent insertion in the Weekly.

Advertisements not accompanied with written directions, will be inserted one month, and charged accordingly.

EUROPEAN IMMIGRATION

TO THE

CANADAS & WESTERN STATES!

—BY—

Train & Co's Line.

ENOCH TRAIN & CO., Proprietors of the Boston and Liverpool Line of Packets, hereby give notice that they have made extensive arrangements with the Western Rail Road Corporations, in connection with the Rail Roads in the Western States, and Steamboats on the Lakes, for the forwarding of pre-paid passengers from Boston to the Canadas and Western States; and are now selling at their office in Boston, and at their authorized agencies, pre paid certificates of passage as follows:

From Liverpool to Boston,	$15 00
" " Albany, N. Y.,	18 00
" " Buffalo, "	22 00
" " Kingston, C. W.	22 50
" " Columbus, O.,	24 00
" " Montreal, C. E.,	21 00
" " Toronto, C. W.,	23 00
" " Hamilton, "	23 00
" " Cleveland, O.,	23 50
" " Sandusky, O.,	23 50
" " Dunkirk, N. Y.,	22 00
" " Toledo, O.,	24 00
" " Detroit, Mich.,	24 00
" " Cincinnati, O.,	24 00
" " Chicago, Ill.,	25 00
" " St. Louis, Mo.,	28 00
" " Milwaukee, Wis.,	25 00

Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Splendid Line of Packets; provisions at sea according to the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; cabin charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to the provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steerage passenger of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two oz. of Tea; 8 oz. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2½ lbs navy bread; 1 lb. wheat flour; 5 lbs. of Rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants,) are furnished with six pounds of bread stuffs per week, the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of pre-paid passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid certificates, either directly or through our agents.

On the arrival of any of our ships in the outer harbor, we immediately dispatch an agent on board, to give pre-paid passengers the necessary instructions regarding their route westward.

Bedding and utensils for eating and drinking, must be provided by passengers; and those going to the Canadas, or Western States, must furnish their own provisions from Boston.

THAIN & CO., of Boston, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of Immigrants, that as owners of the OLD LIVERPOOL and BOSTON LINE of PACKETS, they have determined that their Immigration business shall be conducted in their own name, on their own responsibility, and by themselves or their immediate servants.

In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we beg to say that its general reputation as the first of American Lines is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American Immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the rapid and successful passages made by those Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort and Safety which their Passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of them will be recognised as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

Packet Ships which are dispatched in this LINE:

STAR OF EMPIRE,	Capt. BROWN,
WESTERN STAR,	" THAYER.
FRANK PIERCE,	" MARCY.
GENERAL PIERCE,	" CUMMINGS.
CHARIOT OF FAME,	" KNOWLES,
STAFFORDSHIRE,	" RICHARDSON,
PARLIAMENT,	" DUNBAR,
NORTH AMERICA,	" HOWARD,
DANIEL WEBSTER,	" CALDWELL,
PLYMOUTH ROCK,	" PETTIT,
SUNBEAM,	" NICKERSON.
IRWIN DUDBURY,	"

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

OFFICES:

Enoch Train & Co., Nos. 37 and 38 Lewis Wharf, Boston, Massachusetts.

Train & Co., Merchants, No. 5 India Buildings, Water St., Liverpool, Eng.

Train & Co., Passage Office, Nos. 118 & 119, Waterloo Road, Liverpool, Eng.

Train & Co., No. 61 St. Patrick Street, Cork, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are ALL AMERICAN BUILT and constructed expressly for Packets. They are all new and of the FIRST Class, being built on the most improved principles and of the best materials. They possess all the modern improvements which contribute to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence.

The Captains have been carefully selected for their skill and more than ordinary humanity, and an experienced Surgeon is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and most popular conveyance to America.

As Train & Co. have made arrangements in Liverpool as well as PROTECT their friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practiced there, they believe that those who pre-pay passages cannot but see the advantage of being able to engage with responsible Houses on favorable terms, for a well known Line of Magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which have been sometimes experienced by passengers who are but slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles of a uniformly Honorable and Humane, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfilment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the very Rev. THEOBALD MATHEW, Cork, Ireland.

VOLUME X. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL. NEW SERIES

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 31, 1854.

Sutton King, Wm. H. Watson & John S. Fillmore PROPRIETORS UNDER THE NAME AND FIRM OF RUFUS KING & CO.

NOTICE TO BUSINESS MEN.

The circulation of the DAILY SENTINEL is by far the LARGEST of any daily paper published in the State; and presents greater advantages to Merchants, Mechanics and Artizans, as a medium of Advertising.

All Advertisements appear in the Tri-Weekly Sentinel, without additional charge.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over two THOUSAND copies, which is constantly and rapidly increasing. Advertisements put in the Weekly at the same rates as in the Daily.

Price of the Daily $6.00, of the Tri-Weekly $3.00 and of the Weekly $1.00 per year, payable in advance.

☞ Nothing by Telegraph, from the East, or from Madison, last night.

From our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Jan'y 24th, 1854.

You will have seen in our papers a report of the liberal subscriptions in this city, exceeding $17,000, in order to mark the sense entertained by its commercial classes, who are the principal contributors, of the humane, disinterested, persevering and perilous exertions of the three merchant vessels which rescued the crew and passengers of the ill-fated San Francisco. A larger sum would have been realized, if the Committee had not thought it best at once to divide what was on hand—as sea-faring men are transient, and those, or some of those to be benefitted, might soon pass out of reach and recognition. Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore are likewise taking up subscriptions, to be disposed of as each city shall judge proper. I regret the haste with which the distribution has been made. It would have been better—as it seems to me—and marking the act as national and comprehensive, that all the subscriptions should have been united and the distribution of the aggregate fund have been made by a joint committee, in which each community contributing would have been represented in proportion to its contributions. The total amount would have permitted a more striking manifestation, than will result from the separate action of each city. I do not, moreover, quite like the mode or the proportion of distribution. The gross sum, which, in the cities named, will not be less than $30,000, would have furnished means to secure to each of the three Captains respectively of the Three Bells, Kilby and Antarctic, a respectable annuity for life—the best form of benefit as it strikes me—besides a gold medal and piece of plate, as an external mark, and still leaving a liberal sum to be apportioned among the other Officers and crews. Then, as to the proportion. I would have distinguished Capt. CRIGHTON of the Three Bells, a British subject, by a larger reward than either of the others, because he was longer and more sorely tried—with a leaky ship, short of provisions, and under another flag, he laid by the disabled American—seeing in him only a man and a brother—day after day and night after night, before the stormy seas would permit him to render aid—because he was persevering in his purpose of humanity and ingenious in his mode of exhibiting—as when after dark and cheerless night, he availed again and again of the first streak of dawn, to tack and run down to the disabled ship, and feast their straining eyes with the assurance of his hovering guardianship and cheer their drooping hearts by shouts from his crew, when the tempest forbade other mode of speech: because, tho' not of the immediate family or household, he did all that the nearest and dearest family ties could inspire or suggest.

When our Captain Nye, in the Pacific, so nobly rescued the shipwrecked crew of a British vessel, especial commendation was bestowed upon him by the British Queen and Government and people for that, like the good Samaritan, he had not stopped to see, or to inquire, who was the sufferer; and so, although none in human shape could have passed by such a scene as the San Francisco presented—although the conduct of the American Brig Napoleon in this particular needs explanation—yet there is especial merit in the spontaneity with which, in spite of all discouraging and adverse circumstances, this foreigner stuck to his work of humanity. Such conduct called, in my judgment, for special notice. There is another omission which I regret in a national spirit—the failure to notice the subordinate spirit and conduct of the American Troops on board the San Francisco. Some indeed may have participated in the plunder of the spirit room and in consequent intoxication; but the great mass of them kept their ranks and their discipline and their cheerful obedience, and in untried scenes showed themselves not only above fear, but amenable to authority.

They followed their Officers—and these faltered not—in helping in every manner to relieve the disabled ship; working at the pumps and exposing themselves to fatigue, cold, death—without repining: pressing for escape never, but calmly waiting their turn and when it came, going in as orderly a way as tho' to a parade. Then again those ten or twelve on board the Kilby—when the rest were taken off by the Lucy Thompson, they volunteered to remain with the Kilby, leaking and short of provisions, as she was, in order to help the Captain who, in their hour of need had helped them. This is noble and should have been remembered and rewarded. But all was done in a hurry and therefore imperfectly done.

M. Bedini in the Senate.

In the U. S. Senate on the 23d inst. Gen. CASS offered a resolution, calling upon the President for a copy of the letter from the Pope of which M. BEDINI has the bearer. The object, of course was to ascertain precisely in what character M. BEDINI visited this country. Quite a debate followed; Mr. CASS leading off by strongly animadverting upon the outrages in Cincinnati, Baltimore, New York &c. directed at the Nuncio. It was stated he said, as a cause for these outrages, that the gentleman was concerned in the proceedings at Bologna when BASSI was put to death. He had investigated that matter, and was satisfied that this gentleman had no more to do with that matter than he (Mr. Cass) had.—The Austrians had taken possession of Bologna, and set up a military authority, overthrowing all other authority, and under their power BASSI was executed, as they call it, but murdered, as he would consider it. They seized BASSI, tried and executed him, while the hour-glass was telling sixty minutes.—This was done by Austrian military authority and in it this gentleman took no part. Those outrages and violations of law tended to prevent the spread of Republican institutions.

Mr. MASON, Mr. BUTLER, Mr. DAWSON, Mr. EVERETT and Mr. DOUGLAS followed in the same strain eulogizing the Nuncio and condemning the riotous proceedings at Cincinnati and elsewhere. Mr. WELLER, on the other hand, while not venturing to denounce the Nuncio, said that many Germans and Italians in Cincinnati believed that BEDINI was instrumental in inflicting wrongs and cruel punishment upon their copatriots, became agitated and excited by his presence in their midst, and meet to give utterance to their feelings. If they assembled peaceably for that purpose, and the Nuncio were guilty of only half what his countrymen charge, then the people were right in what they did.

The resolution was adopted and the letter from the Pope to the President (published in the Sentinel of Monday) was the reply to it. The N. Y. Tribune has the following caustic reference to the debate:

"They ran a race in the Senate yesterday on Bedini. Every Presidential candidate was on the course, and their eagerness was alike remarkable and ludicrous. We do not understand from any of our correspondents who is considered to have come out ahead. For speed and bottom the reader is referred to Congressional proceedings."

SCRIP FOR RENT AND REFRESHMENTS.—The proprietors of TAMMANY HALL N. Y. have instituted an action in the Superior Court against the members of the Democratic General Committee of the year 1852, to recover the sum of $1,617, alleged to be due for rent, broken glass, broken furniture, refreshments, &c.

The Dannon Fund.

Messrs Editors:

As the Dannon fund increases, the desire becomes general that something more useful than a monument should be erected to commemorate the noble conduct of that orphan boy and that what over form the testimonial may ultimately take, somethingshould come of it that will be a benefit to poor Fatherless children, An Industrial College, where Orphans could be taught useful and profitable trades, at the same time that their physical and intellectual wants were provided for, would be an institution admirably adapted to meet the object in view. Many of these homes for Orphans have been founded in England and are the means of rescuing numbers of poor children from crime and starvation. I remain Sir

Real Estate Sales in Janesville.

Messrs. Editors:

The Auction sale of lots in this city on Friday last went off well. The prices obtained were as follows: Six lots on Milwaukee street, 22 by 110 feet, brought respectively $2500, $1800, $1650, $1500, $1400 and $1420—making in all $10,275. Six lots on River street, same block, 22 by 110 ft. brought $750, $500 and four $600. Three lots on Main street, east side of River, brought $1725, $1500 and $1275,—the same front as the other. The above sale was made under rather unfavorable circumstances, having been once postponed, and many who were present the first time, prepared to buy, being absent now. Still the prices are regarded as a favorable indication of the confidence business men feel in the future growth and prosperity of our city.

☞ Electromancy is the name applied by Gen. Charles Bracken, of this county, to a new discovery made by him, whereby the exact position of Lodes of Lead and Copper Ore are determined—particularly here in the magnesian limestone formation. It is a discovery of greater importance and pregnant with greater consequences than any that has been given to the world in this age of discovery.—Shullsburgh Pick and Gad.

The Pick and Gad proceeds to describe this discovery at some length and says that it has thus far stood the test of practical application. Gen BRACKEN thinks that it is applicable, as well to the Copper formations of Lake Superior and the quartz rocks of California, as to the Lead Diggings of Wisconsin, and he designs asking of Congress the appointment of a Scientific Committee to investigate and perpetuate the discovery.

GREEN BAY ITEMS.—The Advocate announces severe cold weather, plenty of snow, fine sleighing and busy times at the Bay.

Abram Powlis, an intelligent and industrious Indian, was killed on the 24th inst, while lumbering, by the falling of a log upon his body.

The Presbyterian Church Sunday School of Green Bay, contributed on the 22d inst., in aid of the Dannan Monument.

A semi-weekly line of stages has commenced running between Green Bay and Manitowoc through Two Rivers.

MAIL DETENTIONS.—A portion of the detentions and irregularities of the mails, last week, was fairly chargeable to the M. and M. Rail Road, which sustained a series of annoying accidents, in the way of engines breaking down, cars getting off the track, rails being fractured, &c. As a consequence, both Passenger and Freight trains got behind hand, and the mails with them.

THE LAKE AND OCEAN TRADE:—Kingston [Canada) papers state that Captain Robert Caskin, who formerly commanded a steamer running to Rochester, advertises that he will dispatch from Kingston early in the spring, for Liverpool direct two copper-fastened clipper ships of 720 and 800 tons burthen. The ships are now building at Kingston.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have received several communications, on various topics, within a day or two past, written on both sides of the sheets of paper. Therefore this is to give notice to all and singular the parties concerned, that nothing but extraordinary luck, or extraordinary merit can secure the early publication of articles so written.

☞ Hon. WM. H. Seward has in preparation an elaborate report upon the commerce of the Pacific, which will be able and interesting, and will of course embrace the subject of the Sandwich Islands.

DEATH OF AN EXILE—Patrick O'Donohue, the Irish Exile, after a brief illness, died at Brooklyn, on the 22d inst.

THE OTHER BILL.—In the Senate on Monday, Mr. Douglass asked leave to make a report of the Committee on Territories. The report had reference to the Nebraska country. A new bill has been fabricated, by which it is proposed to split the question and call the territory two—Kansas and Nebraska. We append the bill.

"All that part of the territory of the United States included within the following limits, except such portions thereof as are hereinafter expressly exempted from the operations of this act, to wit: Beginning at a point on the western boundary of the State of Missouri, where the 37th parallel of north latitude crosses the same; thence west on said parallel to the summit of the Highlands finding waters flowing into the Green River, or Colorado of the West, from the waters flowing into the Great Basin; thence northward on the said Highlands to the summit of the Rocky Mountains; thence on said summit, northward, to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude; thence west on said parallel to the western boundary of the territory of Minesota; thence southward on said boundary to the Mississippi River; thence down the main channel of said river to the place of beginning; be, and the same is hereby created into a temporary government, by the name of the Territory of Nebraska.

"All that part of the territory of the United States included within the following, except such portions thereof as are hereinafter expressly exempted from the operations of this act, to wit: Beginning at a point in the Missouri River where the fortieth parallel of north latitude crosses the same; thence west on said parallel to the summit of the Highlands finding waters flowing into the Green River, or Colorado of the West, from the waters flowing into the Great Basin; thence northward on the said Highlands to the summit of the Rocky Mountains; thence on said summit, northward, to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude; thence west on said parallel to the western boundary of the territory of Minesota; thence southward on said boundary to the Mississippi River; thence down the main channel of said river to the place of beginning; be, and the same is hereby created into a temporary government by the name of Kansas.

The section providing for the election of a delegate is amended by adding to the words that the Constitution and all laws of the United States which are not locally in applicable, shall have the same force, and effect within the said territory as elsewhere in the United States, the following: "Except the eighth section of the Act preparatory to the admission of Missouri into the Union; approved March 6, 1820, which was superseded by the principles of the legislation of 1850, commonly called the Compromise Measures; and is declared inoperative."

Section 21. And be it further enacted. That in order to avoid all misconstruction, it is hereby declared to be the true extent and meaning of this act, so far as the question of slavery is concerned, to carry into practical operation, the following propositions and principles established by the Compromise Measures of 1850, to wit:

First—That all questions pertaining to Slavery in the territories and in the new States to be formed, are to be left to the decision of the people residing therein, through their appropriate representatives.

Second—That in all cases title to slaves and questions of personal freedom are referred to the adjudication of the local tribunals with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Third—That the provisions of the Constitution and laws of the United States in respect to fugitives from justice are to be carried into faithful execution in all the organized territories the same as in the States.

PRESIDENT PRO TEM. OF THE SENATE.—In our hurry we neglected to notice yesterday, the election of Hon. B. Allen, President pro tem. of the Senate. He received every vote in that body but his own. This is a handsome compliment to a very worthy man.—Madison Jour.

☞ A lady passing along the street one morning last week, noticed a little boy scattering salt upon the sidewalk, for the purpose of clearing off the ice. "Well I'm sure," said the lady, "this is real benevolence!"—"No it 'aint, ma'am," replied the boy, "its salt."

Men and Things in Gotham--No. 7.

Messrs. Editors:

NEW YORK, Jan'y 23d, 1854.

Cold weather reigns again in Gotham; respiration congeals on the beard; the air snaps; the stars like diamonds shine; the wind is keening at the windows; muffled thousands tread Broadway with a rapid gait; some for the cozy fireplaces of 5th Avenue, and many more for shelter in cellars cold and noisome, where fell disease comes with its fatal touch, and where all is doubly miserable when the winter King is abroad.—Sweltering, festering heaps of mud and garbage have become as solid rock; fog as thick as black night, and unwholesome airs have vanished before the broad and cold sweeping north wind, which, heaven be praised, comes bearing health on its wings, and purity withal. 'Tis not such a wicked world after all; much good lies deep concealed, like the toad in the hard rock, and only needs the miner's hammer to bring it forth, leaping again into the world from its sleep of years or ages.—The "San Francisco" has been the topic of late in all men's mouths, and perhaps the subject deepest in their hearts. How anxiously all waited for tidings from her, when it became known that she was a tossing wreck on the broad Atlantic. How painfully that anxiety was relieved when the "Three Bells" came into port, bringing the survivors of the ill-fated steamer, cooped up and dying with hunger and disease on board her limited accomodations; how like wild-fire the exciting news spread from mouth to mouth, till the whole city had learned the news; then came details graphic and strong, surpassing fiction in its wildest career, of what brave men had done and suffered for week on week of hardship, while death and sickness did their fearful work from hour to hour in their midst. You have had the details, and I can only add that the whole sea-board has risen up as one man to greet with a brothers greeting the hero Captain of the "Three Bells," Creighton,—honored and revered be his name, and as he is a modest man, gratulation and rewards cannot be too thickly showered on him. Truly the victories of peace are more glorious than those of war. When shall the nations arise to a belief in this great truth?

To-night the "Niagara" is in,—news conflicting, a general European war being considered inevitable, consols down in consequence, and breadstuffs got a wonderful rise, flour nearly 75c. per bbl.

The Crystal Palace Juries have made their awards and they are considered by many to be a fit crowning of the many sad mistakes already made in the management of that attractive show. In a financial point of view the thing has been a grand failure, hundreds of worthy individuals of limited means who invested in the stock, will be heavy losers by the operation. The exhibition is still kept up and may be a permanent one, yet many of its most attractive features are now wanting and have been supplied with articles of much less value and interest.

Quite a "Bedini" excitement was raised yesterday—that worthy man being supposed a passenger on board the steamer that left for Europe, but it was all a mistake, he staid "at home," the crowd was numerous and curious. The effigy was burnt with the usual ceremonies and all passed off in the happiest manner. This is a highly favored country, liberty and independence, one and inseparable, reign triumphant, and there's the "devil to pay" all the year round, perhaps in consequence—how unmindful we are of all our many privileges.

Mitchell's paper has a very English like appearance, and already a large circulation, being taken from curiosity by some, and on principle by others—the man has a wonderful amount of Irish brass, and is quite a Sir Oracle." The London Times rakes him calmly and powerfully in an article of much apparent truthfulness, and now our press have got him in their grasp for sundry violent and anti peaceable effusions of his, which only proves conclusively how much better the English knew the man than we. It is certainly amusing to listen to his effrontery on the subject of slavery—for a man with his red mouthed ideas of liberty, to uphold the dear peculiar Southern institution as he does, is certainly "one Heroding Herod" in the way of inconsistency. Poor, unhappy Ireland, ever misguided, with leaders unworthy of their trust, no wonder she is in her present unhappy position.

Koszta is in the city, poor and unfriended, seeking for his daily bread, dependent on charity for a home, while the country is voting a sword, and thanks to the man who rescued him, and to millions the name of Ingraham has become an honored one, while the cause of all this glory is forgotten and unknown, but its not the first time the cause has been forgotten in the effects, but such instances as this makes one very unhappy to dwell upon, for any length of time, and the influence they have in undermining ones love of country, may be more importan't than we are apt to imagine, with a hasty thought.

In opposition to the "Citizen" a new journal has made its appearance, called the "True American" the Editor is a queer fish, one Thomas Picton, and though an Englishman by birth, is a most savage native American in politics, he is a lineal descendant of the brave Gen. Picton of Waterloo Memory.

The Astor Library has been one of the recent novelties. It is in Lafayette place, and a building of great architectural beauty, rather abounding in ornament. It contains about 85000 volumes, light literature forming a very trifling part, while works (and many rare ones,) on ecclesiastical history, natural philosophy, mathematics, and general science form the bulk of the collection which may be considered rather a scholarly one than otherwise, and not such a one as old Astor himself would ever have dreamed of getting together, and the only fear is that the "people" humorously so called, will not avail themselves of the great millionaire's liberality.

Boston has lost another of her Merchant princes, Thomas H. Perkins, and as his name has ever been connected with all that is noble, patriotic and generous, through a long and eventful life, his loss was mourned there universally, and deeply regretted, wherever his lofty character and deeds of charity were known. One of the most interesting occasions on which he figured before the public was at Bunker Hill, when Webster delivered his ever memorable oration on the completion of the monument which commemorates that renowned fight, you know all the world was present, and there you have the happy episode which did no less honor to the head than the heart of New England's idol. Mr. Webster made the following allusion to Mr. Perkins:

Gentlemen, my heart warms, my blood quickens in my veins, when I reflect upon the munificent gifts, grants, and provisions made for the purpose of education, for the morals, enlightenment, and religious instruction of the citizens, and for the relief of the poor by the influence of Boston. And I never think of all this without having my attention attracted to a venerable citizen now in my eye, Hon. Thomas H. Perkins. [Col. Perkins occupied a seat upon the platform. Three cheers were given for him.] Will he, at my request, rise and show his benevolent countenance to the people? [Col. Perkins arose and received three more hearty rounds of applause.] God bless him! He is an honor to his city, an honor to his State, and an honor to his country. His memory will be perfumed by his benevolent actions, and go down as sweet odor to our children's children.

The Artist world has met a loss in the death of Hassenclever, one of the most remarkable of the Dusseldorf painters. Those who have seen his pictures of the "wine tasters," "chess players" &c. must have a vivid and satisfactory idea of his eminent merits, as an artist of the first order.

No music here of consequence. Jullien gave a concert here "en passant" to the south, which was well attended. His success in Boston was excellent, while the two weekly concerts of the Germanians, received the usual flattering attendance. Bourcicault also has been highly successful there, and was at the last accounts to read his "London Assurance," one of the most spirited and perfect of modern comedies.

In the literary world not much stirring—a local romance by a lady in high life, (Mrs. Harrison Gray Otis) called the "Barclays of Boston," is soon to appear, and from the brilliant social position of the authoress, much is expected from it. A new volume of lyrics by Robt. and Elizabeth Browning is soon to appear; Mrs. B. is the distinguished authoress of the "Lady Geraldine's courtship," one of the gems of modern literature. Bunyan's famous Allegory, has been translated into Chinese, and bids fair to have as great a run among the "celestials" as it has heretofore in the terrestrial world. Bayard Taylor has lectured before the Mercantile Library Association, to a crowded house on Japan, &c, and there is much more ensuing, which will appear in our next, and now like the individual who carried the thing too far, I will let it drop.

I remain as ever,

VIOLA.

Model Speeches.

A Bridegroom's Speech—"The Health of the Bridegroom and Bride."

MY FRIENDS:—Of myself at this most mystic hour I will say nothing. No; but I will thank you for my wife. Wife! Blissful monosyllable! A blended harmony of all earth's music! Wife! that calls up, as with an enchanter's wand, the homestead and the hearts: the kettle singing, rejoicingly singing, on the bar, and the cat sleeping, profoundly sleeping, on the rug; a word that intensifies so many meanings! The call of butcher and baker and milk below, and a quarter's rent, and water-rate, and the Queen's taxes. Ladies and Gentlemen, when I only glance at the wedding ring on my wife's finger—that ring and that finger which it has been the summit of my bliss this morning to bring together, when I look upon that simple bit of golden wire, it seems to me that, in the words of the bard of Avon, "I have put a girdle round about the world;" a world of beauty and truth, constancy and love. When I look at that ring—and how can I help looking at it?—does not its brightness fascinate and chain me? Yes, I will repeat it—I am proud to repeat—chain me? When I look at that ring am I not reminded of the circle of domestic duties, a circle even and complete and without a flaw; a circle harmonious with golden utterance; a circle of purity without alloy; a never-ending still beginning round of earthly happiness? My friends, when the honey-moon is over—not that it ever will be over with my own—own—[here give the bride's name, Arabella or Dorcas, as the name may be]—and myself, (for we propose to enjoy twelve honeymoons every year of our lives;) when I enter my house—and here let us return one thanks to my honored father-in-law who has furnished that unpretending mansion with equal taste and liberality, though he will forgive me in this confiding hour, when the heart swells and the tongue will speak, if I jocosely observe to him that the house has a wine cellar and that his taste in tawny port is unexceptionable; when, I say, I enter my house, and for the first time sinking in my arm-chair, place my slippered feet upon my rug—that rug worked by certain hands with heart's ease and roses—I shall say to myself, here is my paradise and here [here look at the bride very passionately,] and here my Eve.

On Receiving a Piece of Plate.

GENTLEMEN:—In having filled the office of—[here put in the office, whether, that of Chancellor of Exchequer, Churchwarden, or Treasurer to a Cricket Club] I assure you I have had but one object, your interest. That object, I fearlessly assert, has never ceased to accompany me. It has gone to bed with me; it has slept with me; it has got up with me; it has shaved with me. Your interest, gentlemen, has been the polar star to my eye, the staff to my hand, and the roses to my feet. Do I say this to make any claim upon your gratitude? No, gentlemen, to giving utterance to these solemn and profound emotions—for they are solemn, since they are not often evoked but upon serious occasions like the present, they are profound, for they come from the very bottomest bottom of my heart—(gentleman, it is sometimes the allowed privilege of deep feeling to violate grammar—a privilege that my impulsive soul must lay claim to at this moment)—in giving utterance to this, and much more than this, much more easily conceived than spoken, I merely state that in fulfilling your service I have fulfilled my own personal pleasure! I have sought no other reward; I expected none; I wished for none.—Nevertheless, gentlemen, when I look upon the splendid candelabrum of fourteen branches—I beg to assure you that I shall again and again, in the deep midnight, contemplate the fourteen wax candles that will be continually burning therein only as so many lights to higher exertion; as so many vivifying suns, suns kindling and strengthening me in your service.

[If the piece of plate should be a snuff-box, say: And, gentlemen, whenever I open this box, whenever my finger and thumb shall take from within a restorative pinch, and taken, when my finger and thumb shall fillip off the particles that may adhere, I shall moralize upon those particles, and think all reward but dust, but that reward, your friendship, your support.]

[If the token presented be a watch, say; And never, gentlemen, can I hear it tick, but my heart will pulsate in unison with its sound; never will it strike the time, but my fancy, will, with backward flight, return to the present moment, the happiest, proudest moment of my life.]

[Should the speaker be a married man, and should a silver tea-pot be also presented to his wife, he may say. It is said, ladies and gentlemen, that a man may not praise himself. Yet how is it possible to avoid such an eulogy when called upon to speak of his wife, who is of himself the nearest and most precious part of his existence. Gentlemen, I thank you for Mrs. ——— and in future inscribed some of her virtues on that silver tea-pot; I fearlessly say some of them, gentlemen, for I do assure you—though do not misinterpret such assurance—it would take an exceedingly large silver tea-board to boot to bear even in short hand a notice of the qualities that, like the flower upon the satin gown in which she appears before you on this happy occasion, cover and adorn her. Ladies and gentlemen, whilst thanking you for this tea-pot, permit me to say that you could not have chosen a more appropriate present for our domestic hearth. What the tripod was to the ancient priestess, the tea-pot (with considerable improvement) is to the English housewife. If it does not inspire her with prophecy, it does much better; it fills her with gentleness and good humor, and makes her cheerful in bestowing cups of cheerfulness upon others. Gentlemen, it is said by Arabian writers that Solomon's genii were confined in kettles; then allow me to say they must have been tea-kettles; for from them, ministered by woman men drink quietude, refreshing calmness, and domestic wisdom.]

We could add plenty other samples, but feel assured that, with only a tolerable memory and presence of mind exercised at some half dozen tables, the speaker may adapt the above sentences to almost any subject, melting them like broken glass and blowing them again into different subjects.—London Punch.

THE ERIE TROUBLES.—We have read the statement of the Mayor of Erie and also the message of Gov. Bigler in relation to the Erie riots, and we must say that they are both unworthy of the source whence they emanate.—Boston Atlas.

We have also read the precious documents, and we must say that in our opinion they are both preeminently worthy of the source whence they emanate, although they probably would not be worthy of any other. We regard King, the Mayor, and Lowry, the Burgomaster, and Bigler, the Governor, as a most charming trio, as nearly alike as three flashes of lightning or three black peas. In the present Lowry aspect of her fortunes, Bigler might be made King of Erie, and nobody would ever know the difference.—Louisville Journal.

☞ Major S. R. Hobbie, First Assistant Postmaster General, is lying hopelessly ill, of consumption, in Washington. It is said there was an affecting scene in the sick chamber of this gentleman on the 19th inst. His daughter Mary was there, in the presence of her prostrate and almost dying father, united in holy wedlock, by the Rev. Mr. Butler, to Nathan Reese, Esq., of Newburg, N. Y. The fond father, apprehending his speedy dissolution, requested that the nuptials should be celebrated before he had seen the last of earth. Major Hobbie was at one time a member of Congress from New York, and as an officer of the Government, it is universally conceded that he ever faithfully and assiduously discharged his responsible duties.—Balt. Sun, 23d.

☞ The Madison Democrat thinks there is no intention on the part of any body to change the time of electing a United States Senator, but is of the opinion, nevertheless, that such a move would be a good one, for the reason that the present Legislature was elected without reference to that matter, and therefore, because the people have given to it no intimation whatever of their choice the Legislature can the better judge what that choice is. The argument is so democratic, and such a regular knock-downer, that we care—We were mistaken—the people don't know what they want, but the Legislature does.—Waukee Co. Times.

☞ In the election of Gov Brown, of Mississippi, to the United States Senate, over Jefferson Davis, the Administration meets with an unexpected defeat, in a quarter where it counted confidently on its strength. Secretary Davis is thus compelled to remain, against his will, in company with friends who were so ready to exchange him as to have already picked out his successor.—Albany Evening Journal.

A BRIDGE TO CANADA.—The severe cold of the last few days has had the effect of annexing us to Canada. On Tuesday afternoon the ice got blocked, and all yesterday we noticed persons crossing and recrossing.—We saw several ladies and gentlemen coming over in the afternoon.—Detroit Adv. 26.

☞ Punch says that the reason why editors are so apt to have their manners spoiled, is because they receive from one correspondent and another such a vast number of evil communications.

City Matters.

MORE SPIRITUAL DELUSION.—Another instance of the baneful effects of spirit rapping delusions took place at the Spring Street Congregational Church on Sunday. The minister, the Rev. J. G. Wilson had commenced his sermon, when a lady, with something unusual in her appearance, got up, and throwing off her bonnet, took a front seat. The sermon and prayer concluded, the minister was in the act of reading the concluding hymn, when the lady walked up into the pulpit. Mr. Wilson very quietly and pointedly told her to take her seat. The woman then walked down, and with her lips mumbling some unknown tongue, continued a few minutes as though in pray r, and afterwards, at the conclusion of the service, finding the lights were being put out, left, and was seen home by a gentleman. We learn that the lady intends to visit all the churches in the city in a similar manner, from a revelation she has had in a spirit circle. The enforcement of the Statute to prevent congregations from being disturbed in their devotional exercises, would be the best and most effectual remedy in such an event.

EXHIBITION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB.—Mr. JENKINS, with four of his pupils, gave a very interesting Exhibition at Metropolitan Hall last night. We regret to say that the attendance was quite small, but those present were gratified and delighted with the proficiency of the pupils and the earnest enthusiasm of their Instructor. We hope that Mr. JENKINS will repeat the Exhibition and that he will not a second time have reason to complain of the lukewarmness and indifference of our citizens to a most praiseworthy and deserving Charity.

STUMP RACE.—A stump race came off yesterday, on the ice, between "Niagara," the cream pony, Daguerreotype and the grey horse "Chronotype," owned by the Sheriff of Waukesha. All the horses started at the word "go it." The Niagara took the lead, and what was worse, kept it. Chrony put in, drawing a Sheriff and Reporter; Daguerre in the "distance that lends enchantment to the view," coming up at last. Ellis treated and the race terminated. Amount of stakes not known.

THE WEATHER.—Two hours of sunshine and a warm, southerly air yesterday, made a decided impression upon the snow. Enough remains, however, with cooler weather to keep us in good sleighing.

☞ The next Lecture before the Young Men's Association, by RALPH WALDO EMERSON, Esq., will be given on Monday next, the 6th of February. It will doubtless attract one of the largest audiences of the season.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—The rite of confirmation was administered to seventeen persons, on Sunday evening last, at St. Pauls Church, by the Right. Rev. Bishop KEMPER.

The United States Marshal at Erie.

Erie, Jan. 26, 8 P. M.,

The United States Marshal arrived here yesterday, and has now begun re-building the bridges and re-laying the track.

There is no resistance offered; though a hard feeling is maintained towards him and his assistants.

Force enough is employed to complete the work in a short time.

The Mayor King and Lowry are not in the city

Washington, Jan. 25.

It is understood that the Senate Pacific Railroad Committee have determined to report in favor of three lines—one through Texas to San Diego, another from the Missouri line near the mouth of the Arkansas, and the third from the west end of Lake Superior to the mouth of the Columbia, with a fork terminating at Puget Sound.

A prominent member of the Cuban Junta, Signor Goncona, is now here, on business connected with the liberation of Cuba.

ILLINOIS AND WISCONSIN RAIL ROAD.—The work on the Illinois and Wisconsin Railroad, since the reorganization of the Company last summer, has been prosecuted with vigor by the contractors, Messrs. Bradley, Strong, Page & Co.—Thirty miles of the line, from Chicago north-westerly, have been finished, and the cars are now running upon it daily. Sixty miles more, which will carry it to Janesville, in Wisconsin, is in a forward state, and will be brought into use by the first of July next, this establishing a connection by railroad between Chicago and Milwaukee by means of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad. William B. Ogden, Esq., of Chicago, is the President of the Company under the new organization, and Henry Smith, Esq., of Chicago, Vice-President.—N. Y. Tribune.

MAINE.—The following paragraph is from The Augusta Age of Saturday last. The question in dispute between the Senate and House have been submitted to the Judges of the Supreme Court.—From what we can learn we infer that it is expected they will decide in favor of the course pursued by the House and against that of the fillibustering seven of the Senate:

"The two Houses assembled yesterday morning and adjourned without transacting any business. It is understood they will repeat this order of exercise daily, until the Court shall set them at work again, by deciding the matter in controversy between the Senate and House.—N. Y. Tribune.

FREIGHTS THROUGH CANADA.—We learn the freight tariff on the Great Western road fixes the cost of transporting wheat and corn in bags from Detroit to the American side of Niagara Falls (including transhipment over both rivers,) at 14 cents ₱ bushel, and pork in the hog, at 50 cents ₱ 100 lbs. These prices cover all expenses from this side until the freights are deposited in the cars of the New York Central Road.—Detroit Inquirer.

AN AMIABLE COUPLE.—A Philadelphia paper states that Hon. Mr. C——, M. C. from Massachusetts, and his amiable lady, came to that city last night, by the cars.

SAFE.—The propeller Peninsula, and the Algonquin, fears for whose safety have been entertained, both arrived at Sant Ste. Marie on the 5th of Dec.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING JAN. 31.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, January 31, 1854.

The chief feature in our market during the past week has been the intelligence by the steamers Niagara and Atlantic, of a continued and rapid advance in the prices of Breadstuffs abroad. This is partly attributable to the anticipation of a general war in Europe, but still more, we think, to the short crops and the fears of a scant supply between now and next harvest. Under this impression Breadstuffs have advanced steadily and rapidly abroad, as also in our Atlantic ports, and the prices obtained in New York, during the last week, have been up to the "highest water mark." Were navigation now open on our Lakes, the rates paid here would be greatly enhanced; but the necessity of holding all produce now purchased, for two or three months yet; the possible decline within that period, and the scarcity of currency, keep prices along the Lake Shore much below what they would be, if the communication with the East was open and money more abundant.—Should the New York market remain substantially as it is now, for 60 or 90 days, all Western produce will find eager purchasers at high figures on the opening of navigation and Vessel owners are already calculating upon good freights and a busy season.

Produce continues to arrive freely and prices tend upwards. WHEAT is in active request at 1,12½@1,22 for fair Spring to Club and mixed, and 1,25@1,30 for white winter. We note a sale yesterday of 10,000 bushels mixed Wheat, free on board, at 1,23. RYE meets a quick sale at 70@75c; CORN at 38@43, OATS at 29@31, and BARLEY at 46@50.—There will be a large accumulation of Grain, at this and other Lake ports, on the opening of navigation.

FEAR has improved during the past week; the markets South and East of us showing a brisk demand and better prices. It seems to be doubted now, whether the amount packed will be as much in excess of last year's crop as was at first anticipated. Hogs continue to come in freely; and our Packers are very busy, paying 4,00@4,12½ for light, 4 25@4,37½ for medium and 4 45@4,50 for heavy. The quality of the Pork brought in is very superior, and the weather has been just right for packing operations.

The winter, thus far, has been highly favorable. An abundant mantle of snow covers the ground, protecting the winter grain, and affording Farmers and Lumbermen much-desired facilities for logging, teaming, &c. Rail Roads, however, suffer in their business and in the obstructions which the snow and ice offer; and on many lines, in the Western States, vexatious delays and interruptions, in the transportation of passengers, mails and freights, have been of frequent occurrence.

The MONEY MARKET is far from easy. The rate of interest keeps up in New York to 7 per cent on call, and 9@10 on good business paper. This affects the whole country, while in this State currency is quite scarce, and business restricted in consequence. But with a large surplus still on hand and every prospect of obtaining high prices for it, as soon as navigation opens, Wisconsin may well be content with the condition of things.

LEGISLATION progresses slowly, both at Washington and Madison. Happily the chief favor the People have to ask of both sets of law-givers is, to let well alone

Reports of sundry Eastern, and Southern markets will be found below.

Fire at Chicago.

Chicago, January 30th.

About 10 o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the American car works on the lake shore, some two miles from the centre of the city. The fire was first discovered in the building used as the foundry, black smith, cleaning and moulding sheps. It is supposed to have taken from a stove in which a fire had been built about an hour previous. The flames spread to all parts of the building which was of brick, and one story in height, fortunately through the exertions of the workmen, most of whom live in the immediate vicinity of the factory, and some of our citizens, the fire was prevented from spreading to the other portions of this splendid establishment which is the finest in the city. The extensive machine shop, a wooden building, was in much danger but was saved. The loss is estimated at about 10 000 dollars, but this must be much less than the actual damage, as the great injury consists in the fact that the works will be obliged to suspend a few weeks their extensive operations, by which some 150 hands will be thrown out of employment for that time. A large number of valuable patterns, tools, &c. were lost, most of the workmen saved their tools.

La Crosse and Milwaukee Rail Road.

We have said but little of late about this enterprise, but have kept a vigilant watch of the progress of the work, and are glad to be able to state that our observations have convinced us beyond a reasonable chance for doubt, that this great undertaking will be pushed ahead with far greater energy than any other line in this state, and though the tightness of the money market may occasion some delay, yet its ultimate completion to the Wisconsin River, and finally to the Mississippi, may be set down at a far earlier day than many of its most sanguine friends could have anticipated one year ago when we first began to talk about it. Large gangs of hands are now constantly employed on all the sub contracts from Milwaukee to Horicon, and we are informed that the grading between those points will be completed certainly by the first of June next. The ties are also being delivered along the portion of the road, and by mid-summer we doubt not that portion will be completed and regular trips made over it. West of Horicon at present there is nothing doing except completing the preliminary surveys, obtaining the right of way, securing stock &c. However, this is not long to be so. Wm. J. Dawes, the Treasurer of the Company, and who is a man of extensive means, has perfected a contract with the holders of the road, Messrs. Bradley, Whitemore & Co. by which he assumes the building of twenty-four miles of this road, commencing at Horicon, and running west, and it is his intention to commence operations within a very short time. He will be here within a few days to attend to the matter, and in the mean time we have seen the stock of the company, or who may wish to do so, will have a chance to pay their subscriptions either in work or furnishing material for the building of the road, and they are to have the preference in the letting of the work. He is also prepared to let contracts for cash, or monthly estimates, and we have every reason to believe that this contract will be driven forward, to a speedy completion. The finances of the company are in an excellent condition. Their liabilities are promptly paid, and everything looks well for the interests of the work.

The meeting of the Stockholders for the election of Directors for the ensuing year is to be held at Fox Lake on Wednesday of next week, being the first day of February, and we trust its result will be for the best interests of the road. Every Stockholders should be there! You who have your farms mortgaged to this Company are deeply interested in the success of the enterprise, and no trivial cause should prevent you from attending to it yourselves! Your presence may be the means of infusing into this already animated project a whirlwind velocity, which shall bear down everything before it, and greatly hasten the day for which you look so eagerly, when the products of your farms shall bring almost as much at the nearest depot as it now brings in Milwaukee, thus saving you an immensity of labor in marketing it, and leaving you to devote the vast surplus for your own comfort. Let there be such a universal turn out of the Stockholders of this road at Fox Lake on Wednesday next as there was at this place last spring, and it will greatly serve to invigorate the Board of Directors then to be elected, for it will show that the people are alive to their own interests, and that they can confidently rely upon their hearty co-operation in the work, while if but few attend to this important business, the work may be greatly retarded thereby. But why need we talk in this way? We know the feeling of the farmers Stockholders in this section and know they are every one of them determined to do their share towards forwarding the work. Let unity prevail amongst you. We see no prospect of discord and hope there will be none. If there may be some rivalry for locations let that be set by to you all, let the contest hard, whoever they may be, have your united assistance, and this road shall be completed so that you will materially feel its benefit before another twelve-month. The Agents of the road are busy at work in many places. Deacon Clinton passed through this place yesterday, on a tour to Berlin, where he expects to make some favorable arrangements for the Company. He has lately been to La Crosse, and found them all alive to the importance of this work, as well as the inhabitants all along the line. Everything looks auspicious, and we trust nothing will occur to mar the general good feelings which prevail, or retard the progress of the work.—Beaver Dam Republican.

GREAT WESTERN RAILROAD.—The steamer Dart, Capt. Castin, brought over a load of five hundred passengers about ten o'clock yesterday morning. The Dart made her way notwithstanding the apparently unpenetrable mass of icewhich blocked up the river.—Detroit Inquirer.

PROSPECTUS OF

Thos. H. Benton's Great Work.

THIRTY YEAR'S VIEW, of the workings of the American Government. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, and sold exclusively by subscription.

During the last thirty years there has been no important public measure in which this active and distinguished statesman has not taken an able and decisive part, and been familiar with the influences, whether secret or public, which have operated forward or opposed each. He is therefore well qualified to write the history of this period.

This work will be completed in two volumes, the first of which will be published early in the year 1854, and will be bought to the close of the administration of Gen. Jackson, and will thus form a complete work by itself, containing about 700 double columns, royal 8 vo. pages, and a superbly engraved portrait of Senator Benton.

Price 50 cts. A specimen can be seen at this office.

The book of subscription, together with specimen sheets, can be found at the law office of Messrs. TUCKER & GARVEY; and the Agent will give an opportunity to persons desirous of subscribing to do so at their residences and places of business throughout the city and county.
